

Improving board planning and reporting

Summary of key planning and reporting changes for the board in 2020 and beyond (some timings still to be confirmed via regulation):

1. From 1 January 2020 schools will no longer be required to have a charter. In 2020 the board's 2019 charter will become the board's transitional strategic plan. This will stay in place until the Secretary for Education approves the board's first 3-year strategic plan.
2. The board's annual plan will no longer exist in 2021. The annual implementation plan will take its place.
3. The analysis of variance will change to a statement of variance in 2020.
4. New planning and reporting requirements in the Education Act 1989, schedule 6, will apply.
5. Planning and reporting regulations will be introduced in 2019 to further guide the board's responsibilities from 2020 onwards.
